Sam Sloan

"Life is good, but it could be better." - Max Lord

Age: 36

Education: Masters Degree, Marketing, NDSU

Hometown: Fargo, ND

Family: Wife, Son (9)

Occupation: Advertiser, Downtown Fargo

Sam Sloan grew up in rural Rogers, North Dakota. He enjoys running, hunting, and going to plays. He ran cross-country in Highschool, and now regularly runs in the Fargo marathon. He has always enjoyed uniting people for common causes and the art of making a sale. Because of these interests, he majored in marketing at North Dakota State University. He has stayed in the Fargo area since graduating. He was hired in town straight out of school. He now regularly walks and takes the bus from home to work. He is frequently approached by members of the homeless community for assistance, and is unsure of the best course of action. He is interested in taking part in a coordinated effort to help the homeless community in Fargo.

Goals

- To know the best he can do to help homeless men and women when he is approached.
- Take part in a long-term plan to help the homeless in his community.
- Educate, equip and inspire others - individuals and organizations - to help their community as well.

Frustration

- Having heard varying opinions and reasoning on the best thing to do for the homeless community and individuals.
- Being uncertain whether the people who ask for help are always being honest.
- Lack of knowledge of the systems already in place and the resources already available to help the homeless community

Personas

Tony Johnson

"Staying healthy is the most important thing in life."

Age: 22

Education: A Pharmacy student in NDSU

Hometown: Hopkins, MN

Family: Parents, a girlfriend, and a dog

Occupation: Student in NDSU

Tony was born in Hopkins, MN. He loves basketball, swimming, and playing PC games. He grew up with good grades, and after graduating from high school, he chose NDSU because the tuition fees at the University of Minnesota were more expensive. He chose pharmacy on the advice of his elders, which is difficult but pays well after graduation. In class, he and his classmates discussed the health problems of homeless people, and he has been paying attention to them since then. His dream is to work and earn money after graduation and buy a house to settle down with his girlfriend.

Goals

- Find health resources for homeless people.
- Get some suggestions on how to communicate with homeless people.
- Participate in volunteer activities for helping the homeless.

Frustration

- Resources to help homeless people are so scattered that it's frustrating to search.
- It's hard to find volunteer activities in Fargo to help the homeless.
- Lack of a communication platform for the community that helps the homeless.

Personas

Bill Murphy

Age: 42

Education: Bachelor's Degree in Social Work

Hometown: Fargo, ND

Family: Wife, daughter

Occupation: Owner of a Supportive Housing building

Bill Murphy grew up in Fargo, ND. During his free time he enjoys spending time outdoors and helping those in need. He is an Army veteran who was deployed overseas when he was 23 years old. After returning from overseas, it was a hard transition into civilian life. He was lucky to have people around him who loved and supported him. He used his social work background and purchased an apartment unit and renovated it to fit the needs of people in need. He has been helping homeless people get back on their feet for almost 10 years now.

Goals

- Provide help in anyway he can to those in need.
- Find a way to get the word out about his supportive housing units.
- Expand his supportive housing into another building so he can help more people.

Frustrations

- Not having a full staff to help with the large need in the community.
- Not having enough funding.
- Not being able to help more people due to the size of his supportive housing units.

Such a meaningful volunteer event!

What a wise choice to volunteer this time! I met so many like-minded people and it was so rewarding to work with them to distribute food to the homeless, and seeing their smiling faces was the best thing that happened to me today! I hope you can join the volunteer activities and help the homeless if you have time. You can also

The Las Vegas Rescue Mission is a Christian organization that offers not only food, clothing and shelter to the homeless and other people in need, but also an opportunity for recovery and to rebuild their lives through Bible study. The goal is to foster a life-long relationship with Jesus and to follow in his path. Towards this goal, the Las Vegas Rescue Mission provides a variety of services for people in need, and the Las Vegas Rescue Mission Thrift Store provides much of the necessary funding to keep these programs running. The Las Vegas Rescue Mission Thrift Store accepts a wide variety of items in good condition, including furniture donations, appliance donations, clothing donations, jewelry donations, book donations, mattress donations, other household item donations, as well as other items too.
